

CCNSO – DRDWG Final Report

Consolidated staff overview of comments on the Final Report public on delegation, re-delegation with consent, re-delegation without consent and retirement of ccTLD's.

Public Consultation from February 17 2011 to 15 March 2011

On 17 February 2011 the delegation, re-delegation and retirement working group (DRDWG) of the ccNSO published its Final Report.

The objective of this Report was to inform and solicit input and comment from the community on the recommendations of the working group to the ccNSO Council and the key findings. In particular the working group would appreciate your views on whether the recommendation of the DRDWG would resolve the short and long term issues identified or if you would propose alternate recommendations and if so, why?

The public comments period closed on 15 March 2011.

During this period no submissions were received, nor were there any questions raised pertaining to the Report or the subject matter in any other way.
