Q4: Is establishing an Empowered Community for enforcing Community Powers a solution that is acceptable to you?(Please see Annex 1 - Recommendation #1: Establishing An Empowered Community For Enforcing Community Powers for more information)	Yes, I support this recommendation., Comment We have no particular objection to establishing an Empowered Community for enforcing Community Powers including GAC participation in it. On the other hand, it should be noted that GAC is not a decision making body, as prescribed in the GAC Operating Principles, and consequently it should be prudent in exercising its power. In the implementation phase, within GAC members, careful consideration should be given to exercising a voting right.

Q14: Is Board obligations regarding GAC Advice (Stress Test 18) a solution that is acceptable to you?(Please refer to Annex 11 - Recommendation #11: Board obligations regarding GAC Advice)

Yes, I support this recommendation.,

Comment

Overall, the recommendation 11 (Stress Test 18) seems to be a well-balanced proposal which reflects the current practice of GAC. What is important at this stage is whether GAC can continue to play its current role under the amended Bylaws. In this regard, there is no change on the point that the Board is obliged to find a mutually acceptable solution when it rejects a GAC advice approved by a full GAC consensus. It should also be mentioned that the current GAC Operating Principles require GAC to work on the basis of seeking consensus among its membership. Furthermore, thanks to the additional threshold, the aforementioned kind of advice may not be rejected as long as a vote of the Board does not exceed two-thirds. Taking these account, we support this recommendation.
