Dear Glen:

Please find my completed statement of interest below:

Current Vocation, Employer, and Position, and Type of Work Performed

I am a trade-mark lawyer with Shapiro Cohen, an intellectual property law firm in Ottawa, Canada. As one of the firm's managing partners, I share various responsibilities for running the firm with my other two partners on the management committee, one of whom is former ICANN and CIRA Board member, Jonathan Cohen. I practice exclusively in the area of trade-mark law and domain name law and represent a broad spectrum of clients from large, global companies with thousands of trade-marks in their portfolios, to medium and small local businesses.

Financial Ownership, Senior Management/Leadership Interest in Registries, Registrars, or Other Interested Firms

I have no financial ownership or management interest in any registry or registrar or other firm with which ICANN has a transaction, contract, or other arrangement nor am I associated in any way with entities that are interested parties in ICANN policy.

Type of Interest in ICANN Policy Development Outcomes

I have no commercial interest in ICANN policy development outcomes.

Arrangements/Agreements With Any Other Group, Constituency, or Person Regarding my Nomination or Selection as an Advisory Group Team Member

I have no arrangements or agreements with any other group, constituency, or person regarding my nomination or selection as an advisory group team member.

Geographic Region

I live and work in Ottawa, Canada.

Stakeholder Groups of Current Participation Within ICANN

I am currently a participant in the Intellectual Property Constituency within ICANN.

I am not affiliated in any form or fashion with any TLD applications, whether as a registry front-end, registry back-end, DNS provider or consultant to a TLD applicant.

Please consider this statement of interest for nomination to the Vertical Integration Policy Development Process Working Group.

Sincerely,

Victoria Carrington
